

The FCC is currently considering repealing the rules that prohibit a media company from owning both a newspaper and a TV station in the same geographic area. I personally feel that this would discourage diversity and enable large national media companies to eliminate any hint of local flavor from our news and entertainment. Local flavor is one of the things that makes our melting pot work, and it would be a tragic mistake to wipe it out. I thank you for your time and attention.